7.1. License Term. The License Term shall be as set forth in the applicable Order Form. If the Order Form does not set forth an initial Term, then the License Term shall be considered a Term License that begins with the Order Form's Effective Date and runs for twelve (12) month period. For Term Licenses, the License Term will renew according to the terms of the Order Form; if the Order Form does not specify a renewal period, the License Term will be extended for an additional 12-month period unless either party terminates the License by notifying the other party in writing at least forty-five (45) days prior to the expiration date of the current License Term.

7.2. Lapsing of a Term License. If Licensee does not pay the Fees due for a renewal of a Term License when due, Precisely may at its sole option, withhold the license key for such renewal period until payment is made by Licensee OR terminate the Software License with five (5) days prior notice to Licensee. Following such termination, Licensee may reinstate a Term License upon its payment in full to Precisely of the then-current applicable Term License Fees for the period during which the License Term had lapsed. Reinstatement of a lapsed Software License shall commence on the next anniversary of the Effective Date, or shall be prorated to that date.

7.3. Material Breach. Either party may terminate this Agreement immediately upon written notice to the other party in the event that such other party commits any material breach of any term of this Agreement and fails to cure such breach within thirty (30) days after the receipt of written notice specifying the breach. Termination pursuant to this Section 7.4 shall not relieve Licensee of its obligation to pay any unpaid Fees, which accrued prior to the effective date of termination.

7.4. Termination by Precisely. Precisely may immediately terminate this Agreement upon written notice in the event that Licensee fails to pay any Fees specified in this Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof, and fails to remedy such failure within ten (10) days following the date that such Fees are due and payable.

7.5. Effects of Termination. In the event that this Agreement or a Software License is terminated for any reason, Licensee shall: (a) immediately cease any and all use of such Software and Documentation, (b) return to Precisely all physical copies or parts thereof, (c) destroy the magnetic media on which they have been stored, (d) cause the Software to be erased from all hardware and (e) certify in writing to Precisely that all of the foregoing has been completed.

"Confidential Information" does not include that which: (i) is legally in the Receiving Party's possession at the time of disclosure without the obligation of confidentiality; (ii) is or becomes part of the public knowledge or literature, not as a result of any action or inaction of the Receiving Party; (iii) is approved for release by written authorization of the Disclosing Party or (iv) is independently developed by the Receiving Party without access or reference to the Confidential Information. In the event the Receiving Party is required to disclose Confidential Information pursuant to a judicial or governmental order, or valid subpoena, such party will promptly notify the Disclosing Party to allow intervention in response to such order.

8.4. Survival. For avoidance of doubt, this Section 8 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement. The duty to protect Confidential Information shall continue for a period of five (5) years.

8.5. Existence of Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Precisely reserves the right to disclose to any third party the existence of this Agreement.
